Take A Chance.

Phony Ppl

(I really wanna get to know you know...)

First impression left me with a smile
Oh, I really wanna get to know you now
I really, really like your intentions
I don't wanna forget to mention

I really, really like your point of view
Tell me everything your going through
I really wanna get to know you now
Oh I, really wanna get to know you now

You only wanna face me when you're smiling
Won't you look me in the eyes while you are crying
I really hope you let me show you how Ooh I, really wanna get to know you now

Damn, what do I do?!
To make it known I think highly of you
Beautiful, the worst that can happen
Is that you'll never see me again
Damn, what do I do?!
To make it known I think highly of you
Beautiful, the worst that can happen
Is that you'll never hear from me again

I know you sick of just sitting hiding come out of your shell ma
I can go with you shopping and find a sale
I know you probably went and got everything they got on the shelves
But I can show you something different (so come see what you missing)
Don't mean to be in your business
But I feel as if you need me to pitch in I'm here to listen ma tell me wassu p
And all this money you've been spending tryna cover it up gon' leave you stu ck
And I don't think you built for the bus
So come and do something for it...
Do something for it...
Shorty bad and I really wanna do something foreign Heard the last nigga you been with ain't do nothing
So lets get a glass for the two and I get loose while you tell me 'bout your past'a
Come, me know you want to move faster
Stressin' out, forget to feel better
Mind over matter
Let go no time to move backwards
Cause I just wanna get to know ya (bow)

You can't choose who you fuck with But you can choose who you fall in... love with The situation's critical, I wanna get into you
Into you... ooh...

Come on baby take my pain away
For eternity or just today
I really wanna get to know you now
Oh, iii really wanna get to know you now
