Phora

Yeah

Try to run from my addictions
Gotta few things, that I take when I'm down
I've been searchin' for myself and
It ain't helpin', it's been breakin' me down

Dead inside, you can't save me now
Late at night, when the sun goes down
Hold me tight, I need help right now
How can I stay alive?
Dead inside, uh, save me now
Late at night, when the sun goes down
Hold me tight, I need help right now
How can I stay alive?

Yeah

We all addicted to somethin' that ruins us, I feel like I just don't do enough
Maybe I'm thinkin' too much or I'm trippin', but I feel like my love's not true enough
Maybe we not used to showin' our feelings and maybe this shit is just new to us
Timin' is crazy and I put you first, but that wasn't enough for the two of us
I've been goin' through my lows and I never thought I'd find a way back
(Never thought I'd find a way back), yeah
I don't know what God has planned, but I hope it's nothin' like my past
(I hope it's nothin' like my past), look
Tryna heal my soul, I don't wanna die slow but I live too fast
(I don't wanna die slow but I live too fast), ayy
Said things I can't take back, don't know why I act like that
So I take two to the face, and
Lord knows I've been losin' patience
Don't know how I got so faded, but I've been contemplatin'
Bad things on my mind been racin'
All the problems I've been facin'
Can't handle my obligations
I know I'm complicated
