

Anything You Need

Phora

Yeah, aye
I ain't trying, no, I ain't really trying to waste your time
I just can't really help the fact that you crossed my mind
Anytime you feel down, just hit my line
Anything you need from me, you know I got you
I ain't trying, no, I ain't really trying to waste your time
I just can't really help the fact that you crossed my mind
Anytime you feel down, just hit my line
Anything you need from me, you know I got you (yeah)
Anything you need from me, you know I got you
Anything you need from me, you know I got you (Yeah, aye)

Everyone left when you stuck around
I need your love when you come around
'Cause I still been drinkin'
I still been smokin'
I'm still the same
Still in my ways
One of these days, let's get away
I know they treated you less than you're worth (yeah, aye)
Giving them love that they didn't deserve
You know I'm broken, I know that you hurt
Fuck it though, we kick that shit to the curb
Shit to the curb (aye, yeah)
I don't need nobody else
I don't need nobody else but you
Right from the jump, you've been the one
You ride for me, Ima ride
Loyalty is all I ask for
Know this love is like a crash course
Hit the wall, and we bounce back do 180 on the dashboard
Both hands on the wheel
Both trying not to crash
We both fall too hard (aye)
We both fall too fast
I'm trying to give you the best of me
Drop a pin, need you next to me
Know you can hit me for anything
When I say anything, girl, I mean anything, yeah

I ain't trying, no, I ain't really trying to waste your time (I mean)
I just can't really help the fact that you crossed my mind
Anytime you feel down, just hit my line
Anything you need from me, you know I got you
I ain't trying, no, I ain't really trying to waste your time
I just can't really help the fact that you crossed my mind
Anytime you feel down, just hit my line
Anything you need from me, you know I got you (yeah)
Anything you need from me, you know I got you
Anything you need from me, you know I got you
