

Back To You

Phora

Bring me back, bring me back, bring me back, oh-oh-oo
Bring me back, bring me back, bring me back, oh-oh-oo

I got too many thoughts in my head, lately
Ain't had enough of you on my bed, lately
Everything's different, this year has been crazy
But honestly, I don't who I've been, lately
'Cause everything is different, don't know what to do
Everything is fallin', I'm runnin' to you
Lately, I feel like I got nothing to lose
I just hate the person I'm turnin' into
I wanna be what we was back in the days
Back to all the times you would still ask me to stay
Back against the wall, you knew I had to be saved
I was drinking back-to-back, shit, I guess I'm back to my ways, wow

Everything's changed so fast
They say the love was never real if the pain don't last
Ashamed of my past, not really knowing how to react
I've been losin' touch just hopin' you'd bring me back
Would you

Bring me back (Yeah), bring me back, bring me back, oh-oh-oo
Bring me back, bring me back, bring me back, oh-oh-oo

I got it, yeah
Couldn't afford to be loved, put us on layaway
Hopin' you'd stay, hopin' you'd waste away your time waitin' for me is wrong
, but still, I hate to say
We all addicted to something that takes the pain away
But I'm tryna go back to the person I was
Why do we act like it don't hurt when it does?
Know I disappeared when you needed me most (Fuck)
Wish I coulda loved how you shoulda been loved
Guess I just overthink and I over-love
Overreact, so I never open up
Over these feelings, I never show enough
You say your heart don't belong to me, but I know it does

Everything's changed so fast
They say the love was never real if the pain don't last
Ashamed of my past, not really knowing how to react
I've been losin' touch just hopin' you'd bring me back
Would you

Yeah
I mean
Fuck...

Bring me back, bring me back, bring me back, oh-oh-oo
Bring me back, bring me back, bring me back, oh-oh-oo
