

Dangerous

Phora

Ooh

You do somethin' dangerous to me (Mm)

Baby girl, you got me on my knees

Beggin', please, give me a chance (A chance)

Yeah (Yeah)

You run through my mind like an obstacle course

You got me, spinnin' in circles, you're my optimal source

You're my, life substance, got me askin' for more

Still so intrigued by your presence, only one I adore

I can't explain it

Too much to handle, way too potent, they can't obtain it

Precious like white diamonds, your shine cannot be tainted

Your face, your image, body, your essence can't be painted

Unique in every way, you're the perfect illustration

Ooh (I mean)

You do somethin' dangerous to me (Mm)

Baby girl, you got me on my knees

Beggin', please, give me a chance (A chance)

Yeah (Yeah)

Sometimes I wonder what it'd be like

If I had you right here by my side, under these streetlights

Honestly there's nothin' I would ever trade for these nights

Used to wish for someone like you, times I couldn't sleep nights

When you're not with me and I'm alone, it just don't seem right (Yeah)

I was lost in my ways

I was fadin' through the darkness, like the stars in LA

The day I met you, I was empty but you showed me a way

I saw the whole universe inside her eyes that day, yeah

For you, I'm, willin' to change and sacrifice the old me

Before I met you, I was dyin' slowly

You taught me how to love again and love myself, I felt alive, you showed me

A love that runs deeper than blood, it's inside our soul, we

Need each other like the Earth needs the sun and the moon

Or the rain the flowers needed to bloom

But you're more than just a soul, you're an angel to me

Here to protect you, keep you safe, and love you dangerously

Yours truly

Ooh

You do somethin' dangerous to me (Mm)

Baby girl, you got me on my knees

Beggin', please, give me a chance (A chance)
