

Don't Change

Phora

Yeah

All these niggas do is switch up on me, ha
It's all good

Yeah, me and my niggas in the crib with the views
Back then, if we had a dollar we would split it in two That's loyalty, you lil' niggas not in my bracket
2018 alone, payed a million in taxes
But that's just the type of thing that comes with this shit
How you been here for a year but think you running this shit? (Nah)
You couldn't walk in my shoes if we switched places
Turn your back for a second, they switch faces
Look, I peak things, then I fall back
Used to want to be around them, now I don't call back
Now I'm in a Benz Maybach and it's all black
I learned these niggas say they got your back, but it's all crap, yea h
These people switchin' on me quick these days
So I ain't takin' anybody's shit these days
See I don't know who to trust, who gon' flip these days?
Sometimes, I just wanna forget these days, damn
So I respect when you answer me when I call you
This life is lonely and people don't always fall through
I lost touch with myself, but I guess we all do
Just come through when you need somebody to talk to, I got you
Just forgive me for all these trust issues
You stayed down through it all and that's why I fuck with' you
I know I told you I'm leaving, I said I'm done with you
Truthfully, I just think that I might be in love with you
And I'm scared that somebody might take my place
Settle for somebody who's hardly ever away
I know the heart is fragile, there's only so much it takes
While we going through these cycles and the waves
All I ask is don't change on me, yeah

Don't change on me

Through the pressure and the pain, all the money and the fame
All I ask is don't change on me, yeah

Don't change

Baby I ain't playing games, you can have my last name

All I ask is don't change on me

Don't change on me

Through the pressure and the pain, all the money and the fame

All I ask is don't change on me, yeah

Don't change

Baby I ain't playing games, you can have my last name

All I ask is don't change on me
