Yeah
Don't mean to be so complicated
Holding on to the love, I'll be patient
Waiting on, wait on your love
Yeah
Confidence in your demeanor
Holding on to the clouds, I'm a dreamer
Tryna find, my way to your love
Woah, woah, oh oh

Yeah
Pretty lips, pretty smile
I found you, it took a while
We found peace, we found time
For you I'd go, a million miles
We were hurt, we were lost
We have each other, it's different now
Since you came, things have changed
And since then, it's vivid now
For you what I wish, diamonds on your lips
Colored waves and the galaxies
I get butterflies when we kiss
Things I can't resist
I'm contained by the bliss
Lost in your mind, lost in your soul
Only place I wanna live
Your lips over my lips are the simple things that I lust
Your skin under my skin and your fragrance when we touch
It was never you, it was never me, it was never them, it was us
So I hold you close and I let you know you're the reason I believe in love
Baby you're the one

Ooh raindrops, roses and diamonds, they remind me of you
They remind me of you
Ooh, when the world is fallin'
I got nothin' to lose, when I got you
Oooh
Ooooh
Oooohh, ooh, ooh, oh, oh, oh
Ooooh
Oooohh, ooh, ooh, oh, oh, oh

Yeah
Don't mean to be so complicated
Holding on to the love, I'll be patient
Waiting on, wait on your love
Confidence in your demeanor
Holding on to the clouds, I'm a dreamer
Tryna find, my way to your love
Woah, woah, oh, oh

Ooooh
Oooohh, ooh, ooh, oh, oh, oh
