

God

Phora

Yeah

I wish I could just be honest

Wish I didn't have to lie, just wish I would've kept that promise

When I'm starin' at the mirror, I just don't see myself inside it

Wish I could go back in time, get through high school, and go to college, but I just can't now

And I could never turn around, I let my fam down

It's funny everybody sayin', "You the man, now."

But no matter what size of these bank withdrawals

It'll never take away the pain I caused, 'cause yeah, I've been unfaithful, God

At times I've been ungrateful God, and

At my lowest points, I went as far sayin', "I hate you, God."

And nothin' is okay right now

No one feels my pain right now

If I didn't have my team, I would've blew out my fuckin' brains by now

But I'm just hopin', yeah

But I'm just hopin'

Yeah, I'm just hopin'

Yeah, I've been unfaithful, God

At times I've been ungrateful God, and

At my lowest points, I went as far sayin', "I hate you, God."

And nothin' is okay right now

No one feels my pain right now

If I didn't have my team, I would've blew out my fuckin' brains by now

But I'm just hopin', yeah

I'm just hopin'

I'm just hopin' someone cares

Yeah, I'm just hopin' someone's there

Yeah, I've been ungrateful, God

Yeah, I've been unfaithful, God

Yeah, I'm a liar

I'm a cheater

I'm a sinner

I'm on fire

And I drink 'til my blood gets thinner

I'm an-addict

I'm a loser

I'm a quitter

And I take what isn't mine, so how you figure-

Anyone would love me? I can't even love myself

So many broken hearts, but I couldn't tell you one I've felt

I guess I'm just numb to the pain

And everytime someone gets close to my heart, I just stand up runnin' away (away, 'way, 'way)

I guess I'm just numb to the pain

I guess I'm just numb to the pain

'Cause I just stand up runnin' away
Yeah, I guess I'm just numb to the pain
