

Heavenly

Phora

[?] it was heavenly
Hold me down
You were my everything, knew everything
I'm not enough

Yeah
Thought that we were perfect, I'm ashamed
Never thought that I would see a change
Now I'm here alone and who's to blame?
Sunflowers never grow without the rain
I try to water you and see you grow
I tried everything but now I know
You can't waste potential on someone that Doesn't wanna help themselves at all baby
Yeah

Thought I was falling again
But you wanna catch me when I land
You left me lonely again
Now all I can do is pretend

Love gives, love takes
Hearts heal and hearts break
Some things we can't change
Stuck in our old ways
Look for love, I'll find a way
Emotions feel like tidal waves
Up and down, it never changed
Got broken wings, can't fly away
Yeah

Thought I was falling again
But you wanna catch me when I land
You left me lonely again
Now all I can do is pretend

[?] it was heavenly
Hold me down
You were my everything, knew everything
I'm not enough
