I Cant Fall Asleep

Phora

I can't fall asleep without thinking about you (about you)
I can't fall asleep without thinking about you (about you)
All of the ways you make me fall
All of the ways you make me fall

All of these feelings I have for you

Yeah, look
Without you nothing feels right
2 am at night
I've been overthinking again
Nothing ever makes sense
I've been on the edge
So I've just been drinkin again
Everything just falls apart
You're all that I've got
I feel like I'm sinkin again
Tell me that I'll be okay
Tell me that you'll stay
And pick up all the pieces again
Cause I don't wanna end up like the last time
Sometimes I'd rather end it and flatline
Then I think of your smile and I calm down
Girl I just need you here through the bad times
I just need you here when I fall asleep
Only time my thoughts don't seem to bother me
Feeling shaky, anxiety killing me
Grab my hand, hold me close, baby talk to me
Cause I'll pick your thunder and I pick your rain
Over anybody else's sunshine
I'll pick a poison to put in my brain
Before I make you feel like you're not mine
If I had a million ways to describe you
All I would need is this one line
I'd pick your heart over my own
Because I've only felt this way one time
Cause I see forever in your eyes
Pretty face but the solemn never lies
You're the only one here to pick me up
Before you I was only dead inside
I can't sleep without you but still I dream
Of a life where we just need the simple things
Me and you on a planet so far away
Maybe that's all that we really need

I can't fall asleep without thinking about you (about you)
I can't fall asleep when I'm thinking about you (about you)
All of the ways you make me fall
All of the ways you make me fall

All of these feelings I have for you

You make broken look beautiful
You make strong look invincible
You make pretty seem perfect
But I know you feel like something's missin too

You make broken look beautiful
You make strong look invincible
You make pretty seem perfect
But I know you feel like something's missin too

You make broken look beautiful
You make strong look invincible
You make pretty seem perfect
But I know you feel like something's missin too
