

In Time

Phora

It's like even in my dreams
You running through my mind
No one else makes sense
I just wanna make you mine
You just need somebody who
You could be faithful, be faithful to
You could be faithful, be faithful to
Running through my mind
No one else makes sense
I just wanna make you mine
You just need somebody who
You could be faithful, be faithful to
You could be faithful, be faithful to

Yeah
You deserve someone who's loyal and faithful to Someone who ain't impatient to you
All your exes never got the bigger picture
If you want I can paint it for you
You need someone who's gon' get a first class
To Bahamas and Caymans for you
Someone who loves you, someone who needs you
Someone who's always gon' cater to you

But I think we met at the right time
Promise I'll never change
I'll be your friend and your lifeline
Whatever you want babe
He broke your heart, you can take mine
Don't throw your love away
I wanna go where the stars shine
We should just get away babe

I'll fly you to the clouds, take you to the moon
For a better view
Goddess of my dream, just the simple things
Only me and you
I know love is hell, like phone number twelve
All I see is you
I'd travel to the moon just to get to you
If you only knew

I just wanna let you know I'm made for you
And I mean everything that I say to you
I'll put you in my will like I'm Jada's boo
And I'll love you till 3082
Yeah, I was made for you
And I mean everything that I say to you
I'll put you in my will like I'm Jada's boo
And I'll love you till 3082

It's like even in my dreams
You running through my mind
No one else makes sense
I just wanna make you mine
You just need somebody who
You could be faithful, be faithful to

You could be faithful, be faithful to
Running through my mind
No one else makes sense
I just wanna make you mine
You just need somebody who
You could be faithful, be faithful to
You could be faithful, be faithful to
