Make Some Way

Phora

Yeah, they gonna see the outcome. Count my blessings every time I have one. It never comes easy when you lazy on the subject. Wait a sec, why for? Better yet, ready for the mic check. Fuck em, never break a sweat.

Pay my gas, pay my dues. No matter what, I'm stayin true. Never far from nonsense cause momma didn't raise a fool. Gotta keep it movin, I ain't with that bullshit. Don't talk about it, I do it. Take action and seek improvement.

So follow my footsteps to the state of relevance, only place th at's making sense, speaking from experience. Point at blank pap er, yeah I'm tired of it all. Tryin to paint a picture when you don't know how to draw.

Yo, I do this for my family, I do this for my folks. I do this for the cats who used to take me as a joke, the ones that doubt ed me and said that I'd never amount to nothing. And even thoug h they hate, I'm still brought up in their discussions.

All the sudden get the time of day, last time I felt the hate. Appreciate, you never did, so I stay devilish. Insecure, you ne ver know for sure. With this shit I endure, always leavin me, m ature.

Yo, nothin but love in my heart for the cats who feel my strugg le. Cause sending drugs and doin deals don't really mean you hu stle. Nah, cause it ain't hard to sell dope to a fiend. That ai n't respect, you should try reaching your goals and your dreams .

Cause I'm thicked skin, shoot opinions down, like you gotta be. Not losin sleep over lowlife fuckery. Social suicide with thes e Geminis, see you on the rise and do nothin but despise.

And you gotta watch for them snakes kid. Trust isn't common rou nd as every other hate is. And they quick to end your life over some lunch money. And everyone's hungry, we all gotta eat but ain't enough food for all of our tummies so.

And it can't stop, and it won't stop, and it don't stop til we make your body rock. Here we get down, never listen to what the haters say, and when you see us comin better make some way. An d it won't stop, and it don't stop til we make your body rock. Here we get down, never listen to what the haters say, and when you see us comin better make some way.

And your bad habits, it goes without saying. You don't understa nd, then you don't know what you missin. Sucked in like a gold mind, belief is hard to find. Read between the lines, so get le ft behind.

Yo, after all's said and done, I stay true to my people. Never follow they rules cause these fools can deceive you. Look, I'll never ride with the niggas I didn't walk with. I'll never eat with the people I didn't starve with.

On the high pedestal, but you so miniscule. Tryin to be the bes t but you lackin the pole. Yeah, back at square run when I hit the home run. Left you in the dirt, cause that's what you deser ve.

And homie, I ain't with the bs, I just wanna live drama free. B ut every now and then I hear the devil calling me, temptin the innocent. They say we all human, but karma is a bitch and she d on't like hearing excuses, nigga.

And it can't stop, and it won't stop, and it don't stop til we make your body rock. Here we get down, never listen to what the haters say, and when you see us comin better make some way. An d it won't stop, and it don't stop til we make your body rock. Here we get down, never listen to what the haters say, and when you see us comin better make some way.
