

Move Too Fast

Phora

Move too fast

Yeah, I know I probably move way too fast

Yeah, I know I probably move too fast

Yeah, I know I probably move way too fast

But truth is, I would've waited for you

Don't let this get to your head

But no girl could ever take me from you

And all my friends say I'm stuck on you

See, I hate to love you

Yeah, see, I just move too fast

So I couldn't end up staying for you

They say, "The only way to know that love is real is when you hate each other"

They say, "The only way to know that love is real is when you hate each other"

Yeah, see, I just move too fast

So I couldn't end up staying for you

I know I move too fast

Couldn't have a future with you when you stuck in the past

It's like, you let go, I started getting attached

I put you first, you said I'm just like your last, damn

That's when I start think to myself "Did you even care?"

Or was I lost looking for a love that wasn't there?"

In a world full of snakes, I was real to you

You'll never know how I feel for you, I'd kill for you

But I was your cure, you were my disease

I was saving you, but you were killing me

I seen a person in you that you couldn't see

But you just wanted me to be someone I couldn't be

Well love is like a rose, flawless to the eyes

Beautiful at first, but eventually it dies

Truth brings pain, but that's beauty in the lies

So I'd rather be lied to than feel this emptiness inside

Had to subtract my ex's, you the one in my equation

But why you let 'em divide us over something they were saying?

I don't get it love, you push away, but say you miss my love

Gave you all I had, made me feel like I ain't give enough

Said you'd never quit on me, but now you giving up

See, I would die for you, but you can't even live for us

So, now we pretend like we don't exist

But we both know it wasn't supposed to end like this

I know I...

Move too fast

Yeah, I know I probably move way too fast

Yeah, I know I probably move too fast

Yeah, I know I probably move way too fast

But truth is, I would've waited for you

Don't let this get to your head

But no girl could ever take me from you

And all my friends say I'm stuck on you

See, I hate to love you

Yeah, see, I just move too fast

So I couldn't end up staying for you

They say, "The only way to know that love is real is when you hate each other"

They say, "The only way to know that love is real is when you hate each other"

Yeah, see, I just move too fast
So I couldn't end up staying for you
