

Not The One

Phora

You say that we're done, I don't love me
I wanted someone to hold me
Somethin' to tell me, I am the one
But I'm not the one for you
For you, ooh, ooh
Not the one, not the one for you, ooh, ooh
(Oh my God, it's 4lexf)

Yeah
I swear the day I met you, it just felt so instant
The feelings runnin' deep, it felt so realistic
When your body met my body, and our souls were mixin'
There's a part of you I held, I wish I never missed it
Like, if it's not with you, then I don't wanna smile
And if it's not with you, then I don't wanna breathe, yeah
I remember how your hair used to blow in the wind
It reminds me of the summer breeze

You say you're done tryna love me
I hope you're still thinkin' of me, of me
Don't know why you try to run from me
I just hope you ain't too lonely, lonely
You say you're done tryna love me
I hope you're still thinkin' of me, of me
Don't know why you try to run from me
I just hope you ain't too lonely, lonely

You say that we're done, I don't love me
I wanted someone to hold me
Somethin' to tell me, I am the one
But I'm not the one for you
For you, ooh, ooh
Not the one, not the one for you, ooh, ooh
