

Pretty Thoughts

Phora

Yeah

Lovin' you, feels so different
I think you got what's missin'
You're broken too? That's okay, my love
You got pretty thoughts, good intentions
Lovin' you, feels so different
I think you got what's missin'
You're broken too? That's okay, my love
You got pretty thoughts, good intentions

Be with you, all I need
Agony, ecstasy
You deserve the pretty things
A thousand roses, diamond rings
She's a goddess, she a queen
The type of girl you only see in dreams
My addiction, all I need
I wanna be with you and never leave (Yeah)
Hold me tight through the night
You've been through so much
You were hurt by your first, just like all of us
I don't need anything, 'cause your smile's enough
Fly with me, maybe we, we can fall in love

Girl, I'm fallin', fallin', fallin', fallin' for you (Oh-oh)
Fallin', fallin', fallin', fallin' for you (Oh-oh)
Oh-oh-oh

Lovin' you, feels so different
I think you got what's missin'
You're broken too? That's okay, my love
You got pretty thoughts, good intentions
Lovin' you, feels so different
I think you got what's missin'
You're broken too? That's okay, my love
You got pretty thoughts, good intentions

She the type to hit the runway, she a one of one but they just don't
