

Simple Things

Phora

Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
Baby, I know, you miss the simple things

Yeah, look

I seen her in my dreams, in my dreams this girl was everything but broken

Cancer on your horoscope, I'm scopin'

Told her that her smile can cure the world, see you can laugh b ut I ain't joking

I'm hoping that your schedule is open

'Cause baby we should make some time, I just wanna make you min e

I been moving fast, lets slow it down, girl, I'ma take my time

I don't wanna rush it now, I just wanna love you down

I just wanna build with you and find a way to trust some how

'Cause everybody needs love, everybody needs someone

Everybody got a past, everybody got these feelings they run fro m

Sometimes we need real love, sometimes it don't heal us

Sometimes we get hurt to the point most of the time we can't fe el love

I know you miss being listen too, I know you miss someone missi ng you

I know you miss all the simple things and I gotta say I've been distant too

Even though this type of love comes with a price tag I'm just h oping that it's all worth it

'Cause all the simple things make it feel so perfect

Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
Baby, I know, you miss the simple things
