

Summer Luv

Phora

Fall for someone else
Is it the same whenever she calls?
Why'd you up and leave here without my love?
No, it's not the same here without your love
Why'd you left me?

Yeah
I'ma give you love like you ain't had it
Fuck around with me, get my name tatted
Ever since you know who, I've been a straight savage
But baby girl, for you, I'm tryna change habits
You know my life, I'm tryna throw a couple bands
I ain't been the type to really hold nobody's hand
Book a flight, different time zone when you land
'Cause I'm tryna be in houses, summer, closer to the sand
I don't want no Thottiana, just the dollars with the blue face
Prada bags with the Louis V suitcase
Rented out my old house, it's my new place
But you ain't gettin' through the gate, man, you too fake
Ayy, same team, I don't switch sides
Got cash money, like I'm Drizzy back in '09
When I'm out in H-Town, I got mob ties
That's no lies, no lies

Fall for someone else
Is it the same whenever he calls?
Why'd you up and leave here without my love?
Baby, will you be my summer love?
Oh-oh, oh (Ayy, uh)

I be in the Benz truck, bulletproof the whip up
I ain't takin' any chances, all my nigga blicked up
I be in the club with all these girls, I don't pick none
Was broke before but then my whole life switched up, yeah
She be tripping 'cause I'm too famous
And all my niggas with me, they be too dangerous
Don't act like you the one if you got two faces
Need someone to grow old with and visit new places
New Benz, I'ma drive it like it's stolen
2AM, late nights by the ocean
We be chillin', we be sippin', we be smokin'
I don't really put my feelings in the open but 42 got me movin' slow motion
Look at you and I just can't focus
I'm tryna wake up with you in the mornin'
We rollin', we rollin'

Fall for someone else
Is it the same whenever he calls?
Why'd you up and leave here without my love?
Baby, will you be my summer love?
Oh-oh, oh
