

Tears Of An Angel

Phora

We all make mistakes, head high, wipe them tears off your face.
Nobody ever notice you, yeah.

I know it gets rough, yeah, but we all make mistakes. Keep your head high, wipe them tears off your face. You need someone but nobody ever notice you. Just remember you got angels watchin over you.

I know times are gettin hard and it's tough to handle, but no matter what, promise you'll keep your head high. Cause I'd hate to lose another friend. This world's a battle and I shed blood, sweat, and tears just to get by. My only weakness is havin a heart, and if I could change the world I wouldn't know where to start. But if you truly want change you gotta start with yourself. So I'm workin on my flaws and I ain't nobody else but me and we all change when we get older. Call me what you want, beauty's in the eyes of the beholder. Angels watchin over, hah, bless my soul. Remember when I first told ya, "Friends turn foes."

One was standin right next to me. Who would have known? Shit, I love life but it's a bitch I just can't cope with. But I hope this helps you understand me. And if I never get the chance to win a Grammy my mom will still love me, and so will my grammy, and so will the rest of my fans and most of my family. And yo, that's way more than I would ever ask. Good times are on the way, bad times, just let em pass. And I promise when I leave you'll never be alone, angels watchin over you when I'm gone. And I promise when I leave you'll never be alone, angels watchin over you when I'm gone.

I know it gets rough, yeah, but we all make mistakes. Keep your head high, wipe them tears off your face. You need someone but nobody ever notice you. Just remember you got angels watchin over you. Yeah, we all make mistakes. Head high, wipe them tears off your face. Nobody ever notice you, you got angels watchin over you.

So get a grip and wipe them tears off your face and promise yourself that you'll never lose faith. And when they tell you that this world don't have a place for you, I know a place that I can take you to. And I wonder, sometimes I wonder if they'll ever realize. When they look at me, they look into my people's eyes. I'm the voice of the children who never got to speak. And I'll never be silent so either talk to me or walk away but whatever choice you chose to make, you'll have to live with forever. Go on and choose your fate.

Child of the future, I'm here to make a difference. I could sav e a life and all you have to do is listen. Raised by the angels

, my mother was sent from heaven. And even though life is rough
, I cherish every second. And it's a blessing to know that when I go to sleep, I have an angel watchin over me. And it's a blessing to know that when I go to sleep, I have an angel watchin over me.

I know it gets rough, yeah, but we all make mistakes. Keep your head high, wipe them tears off your face. You need someone but nobody ever notice you. Just remember you got angels watchin o ver you. Yeah, we all make mistakes. Head high, wipe them tears off your face. Nobody ever notice you, you got angels watchin over you. Wipe them tears off your face, wipe them tears off yo ur face, wipe them tears off your face.
