

Thankful

Phora

Never happy but always thankful, never satisfied but always grateful. I put my past aside and focus on the future, but it's difficult when cats who used to like you start to hate you. And I owe this to my mom for puttin up with me, all throughout these years when ain't nobody wanna fuck with me. They used to say I lacked the confidence to set the path, but I got a big heart I just let it pass. Often I sit and wonder bout what I'll be remembered as. To these kids I wanna be that hero that I never had. But then y'all wanna shape me up into a villain, and grow off of my downfall and break apart all my feelings. But I ain't trippin cause I'm learning to accept the facts. Yeah, people come and people go but friends will never last. Yeah, and I was wrong in the past. Then I realized that all could be gone in a flash, so I'm thankful.

I'm thankful for the haters, cause at the end of the day, it's all just motivation. And I'm thankful for my family cause all I really want is for someone to say that they're proud of me. And I'm thankful for my struggles, cause if everything was easy I wouldn't know how to hustle. And most of all I'm thankful for my life, Lord. Forgive me for my sins, you know I'm trying to do right, look.

Now all my ex's send me texts sayin that they miss my voice, and how they hate thinkin bout me but they don't have a choice. Cause all your friends talkin about me so you can't ignore me.

I put my life into this shit, you should be happy for me.

Blood, sweat, and tears over the years. Now that I'm gettin what I deserve. Y'all niggas, damn you got some nerve to tell me that I've changed and you think the fame is getting to me. But if that's what you think of me then you never knew me.

Yeah, cause I just want to make a difference and I wanna thank the fans and everybody out there listening. Cause if I died before I made a change, just know I tried to. But most of all, remember that I'm just like you. I just want to make a difference and I wanna thank the fans and everybody out there listening. Cause if I died before I made a change, just know I tried to. But most of all, remember that I'm just like you.

I'm thankful for the haters, cause at the end of the day, it's all just motivation. And I'm thankful for my family cause all I really want is someone to say that they proud of me. And I'm thankful for my struggles, cause if everything was easy I wouldn't know how to hustle. And most of all I'm thankful for my life, Lord. Forgive me for my sins, you know I'm trying to do right, look.
