

The Art Of Healing

Phora

Oh-oh

Oh-oh

Oh, mm

You don't have to hide your scars, you're beautiful inside
No matter what you been through, it's so much more to life
You don't have to hide your scars, you're beautiful inside, oh,
oh

Don't run away from
All of the things you feel inside
You know you're safe with me
I'm always here for you to confide
Don't be afraid of
What people say 'cause you're perfect to me ('Cause you're perfect to me)
You're all I need (You're all I need)
So don't run away from
All of the things you feel inside
You know you're safe with me
I'm always here for you to confide
Don't be afraid of
What people say 'cause you're perfect to me ('Cause you're perfect to me)
You're all I need (You're all I need)

Yeah

You helped me free my mind
You helped me feel like I was me inside
Showed me how to heal my scars and leave it all behind
You made me feel like I was free, now I don't need to hide
Yeah, and only time will tell
You showed me how to feel love, now I love myself
Now I love myself

You don't have to hide your scars, you're beautiful inside
No matter what you been through, it's so much more to life
You don't have to hide your scars, you're beautiful inside, oh,
oh

So don't run away from
All of the things you feel inside
You know you're safe with me
I'm always here for you to confide
Don't be afraid of
What people say 'cause you're perfect to me ('Cause you're perfect to me)
You're all I need (You're all I need)
