

When It's Over

Phora

It's been a while since I spoke to you, everything seems different now
I'm trying to focus, you've been out of frame, but it's crazy how I see the picture now
It's been a while since you've been around, me, I finally put the liquor down
Crazy how life is bittersweet, 'cause my grandpa is getting sicker now
Yeah, I've been trying not to lose touch, but all this stress is just too much
When I was young it was me and him riding round the city just the two of us
Wish I spent more time with him, all the times that I held back
All this money in my bank account, but there ain't a way to buy health back
See, back then we was close, then I lost who I was Getting close to my dreams, but further from who I love
What's meant to be is just meant to be, I don't think we could change that I ain't saying I regret it now, I just wish I had them days back
And that's real

Does it hurt to think of me? (think of me)
Wishing your heart still belong to me, yeah
'Cause when I close my eyes I'll be searching for you (searching for you)
Thinking of the ways I've been hurting for you (hurting for you)
I'll be here if you come look for me (look for me)

It's been a while since I spoke to you, both of us getting older now
Life is moving so fast for me I just wish I had a way to slow it down Wish I wasn't scared to open up, 'cause I ain't talked to my dad still
But he's stubborn though, that's where I get it from, he drinks Hennessy with his Advil
Everyone say I'm just like him; we smile hard and we hide tears
Even though I've seen him last month, I ain't seen my dad in like five years
And that gets to me, heart's heavy I just can't adjust to these changes
Lost some people that was closest to me, now I'm losing all of my patience
Ex girl say they still love me, old friends just come and go
Really I've been trying to move on, but I'm too afraid to end up alone
Too afraid to give my love, 'cause I'm too afraid I won't feel love
And I'm too afraid that I'll find love just to find out it's not real love
I got so many trust issues, wish I was there to uplift you
And even though we ain't close now, it's difficult to not miss you
But I wonder what you say to people when they speak about me
I know we both went our separate ways, I just wonder if you still thi nk about me

That's real

Does it hurt to think of me? (think of me)
Wishing your heart still belong to me (to me)
'Cause when I close my eyes I'll be searching for you (I'll think of you)
Thinking of the ways I've been hurting for you (of you)
I'll be here if you come look for me (if you come looking for me)

If you come looking for me
If you come looking for me
Yeah yeah yeah
