All The Same

Phosphorescent

Leafy trees and empty trees
They're all the same
Blowing trees and frozen trees
They're all the same

Empty nights and feral nights
They're all the same
Silent lives and violent lives
They're all the same

It's all the same
It's all the same
It's all the same
It's all the same

Hidden lies and alibis
They're all the same
Open skies and darkened eyes
They're all the same

Final rights and china lights
They're all the same
Hallowed halls and alcohols
They're all the same

It's all the same
It's all the same
It's all the same
It's all the same

It's all the same
It's all the same
It's all the same
It's all the same

It's all the same
It's all the same
It's all the same
It's all the same
