

Storms

Phosphorescent

Every night that goes between
I feel a little less
As you slowly go away from me
This is only another test

Every night you do not come
Your softness fades away
Did I ever really care that much
Is there anything left to say?

Every hour of fear I spend
My body tries to cry
Living through each empty night
A deadly call inside

I haven't felt this way I feel
Since many a years ago
But in those years and the lifetimes past
I did not deal with the road

And I did not deal with you, I know
Though the love has always been
So I search to find an answer there
So I can truly win

Every hour of fear I spend
My body tries to cry
Living through each empty night
A deadly call inside

So I try to say goodbye, my friend
I'd like to leave you with something warm
But never have I been a blue calm sea
No, I've always been a storm

I've always been a storm
I've always been a storm
I've always been a storm

We were frail (Storm)
(Storm)

She said, "Every night he will break your heart" (Storm)
I should have known from the first I'd be the broken hearted (Storm)
I should have known from the first that I'd be the broken hearted (Storm)
Should have known from the first I'd be the broken hearted (Storm)
I mean every night, every night, every night he will break your heart
(Storm)
And every night, every night I'm a storm (Storm)
I said, every night, every night I'm a storm (Storm)
