

Healing House

Phum Viphurit

One more hit
I swear I'll stop when I get
One more fix
The substance makes me whole
Or empty, I don't know
Anything to feel less heavy

One more kick
I'll wake tomorrow and be shamed by it
Tell me what you're running from
I will listen, I won't judge
In brighter days, we trust

Head on down to the Healing House
Lay to rest your fear and doubts
"It's tense, I feel the strain"
Hold tight and start again

One more night
You're just one sleep away from morning light
Yeah, it's okay to cry
Just please don't say good bye
'Cause
You are everything to someone
You are everything to someone
You are everything to someone
You are everything to someone
You are everything to someone
You are everything to someone
You are everything to someone

Head on down to the Healing House
Lay to rest your fear and doubts
"It's tense, I feel the strain"
Hold tight and start again
