

Loving And Letting Go

Phum Viphurit

Nice and gently we collide to become one
Feel all my ache subside warm like the sun
If we should grow apart I'll feel much pain
But if it's love you found, please don't refrain

Light of my life, fire at night, I (am)
Sorry if I held too tightly
With you around it's love I found

Now that the years have passed
We bloomed with age
Loving and letting go
Turn the next page

Light of my life, fire at night, I (am)
Sorry if I held too tightly
With you around it's love I found

Light of my life, fire at night, I (am)
Sorry if I held too tight
With you around it's love I found
