

Tail End

Phum Viphurit

I don't wanna die feeling like
I wasted my life away
But I wake up feeling wasted everyday

That's what John said, I kept him company
He's drowning in misery
He drags on a cigarette
But all he taste is regret

And as the words slip from his lips
He took his so-called final sip
Casting the world aside
To stop the coming tide

At the tail end of pleasure
At the tail end of pleasure
At the tail end of pleasure
At the tail end of pleasure
It feels like nothing at all

The final drag, deep and long
Like a farewell before the storm
Terrified to turn inside and regard the final form
Let's leave here before they turn all the lights on
Oh, I don't wanna find out
Where everyone's gone

At the tail end of pleasure
At the tail end of pleasure
At the tail end of pleasure
At the tail end of pleasure
You don't feel like nothing at all
You don't feel like nothing at all
You don't feel like nothing at all

It's all familiar
Oh, I'm just waiting to fall
Into a dawn
I'm really not that ready for

Well can we pretend
It's all like it was before
I guess not
It's hard to remember the things we forgot

At the tail end of pleasure
At the tail end of pleasure
At the tail end of pleasure
At the tail end of pleasure
It feels like nothing at all

(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)
At the tail end of pleasure (Nothing, nothing)
It feels like nothing at all
(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)

At the tail end of pleasure (Nothing, nothing)
It feels like nothing

(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)

(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)
(Nothing, nothing)
