

Screaming At The Moon

Phyllis Hyman

Take a look around at the night
There's fire in the sky
And every thing keeps closing in
There's nowhere left to hide
Shadows of the dreams that haunt you find you in despair
Cause the one you gave your heart to is not longer there

And you'll be screaming, screaming, screaming at the moon
And you'll be screaming, screaming, screaming at the moon

It was an intimate rendezvous
And he can hardly wait
For the 5:00 on the wall
Gonna leave this rat race
He's anticipating romance
Finally he's found
Finding all your love is soaring
Never coming down
Down, down, down

Oh, and you'll be screaming, screaming, screaming at the moon
And you'll be screaming, screaming, screaming at the moon
And you'll be screaming, screaming, screaming at the moon
And you'll be screaming, screaming, screaming at the moon

Screaming, screaming, screaming

Promises of love that takes you
To the danger zone
And all he has is heartbreak
Because his love has turned you cold

And you'll be screaming, screaming, screaming at the moon...
