

You Just Don't Know

Phyllis Hyman

Do... Do... ooh...

You just don't know what I've been going through
You just don't know how I've been missing you
You just don't know how glad I am that you're back
You just don't know, you just don't know

You just don't know all these tears I've cried
You just don't know how I feel inside
You just don't know how good it feels to have you back

Sitting by the telephone
Waiting for your call
I ain't had a loving since you've been gone
Baby come and hold me, and never let me go
Let me show you how I missed you
Let me give you all my love

You just don't know what I've been going through
You just don't know how I've been missing you
You just don't know how good it feels to have you back

You cannot imagine
Imagine what it's like
Planning all my evenings by the TV Guide
Wishing you were with me to love the night away

Let me show you how I missed you
Let me give you all my love

You just don't know what I've been going through
You just don't know how I've been missing you
You just don't know how glad I am that you're home
You just don't know, you just don't know

You don't know what it feels like to be lonely
Wanting me there, you're my one and only
You don't know how good it feels to have you back
You just don't know, you just don't know

You don't know what it feels like to be crying
I felt like, I felt like I was dying
You don't know how good it is to have you back
You just don't know, you just don't know

You just don't know what I've been going through
You just don't know how I've been missing you
You just don't know how glad I am that you're home
You just don't know, you just don't know
