e
Its for my niece who will never know what it means to be severed from family ties and to be thrown in a hall with thieves Over a gold meddalion, was stolen and hope the keys jingling and they get to mingle it with open air with open breeze

I do this for my pistol and virgin ready to fuck it up
For my uncle rich, when I cried he told me to suck it up
With the reckless, we knew the chunk and buck we knuckle up
Life a rollercoaster, best keep a toaster and buckle up

Do this for the psycopath in the path where the grass is greener
Whether to chit chat later a belle latina
This is for the women who acknowledge God inside
She polished but down she wild, if they pull me up, she hold the nina
This is for my ancestors sold into slavery
And doing the unspoken while tightly holding their babies
That's another level of strength that I got in my veins
Ah swear, we not in the same league, I'm magic in the 80's
I'm averaging the way I'm savage, I'm already almighty
Can't hold me, I'm Kyrie Kobe and Toby
I'm likely to run away and come back with a chunk of of fody
Ready to blow it any moment
Pay me what you owe me, bitch

This spotlight [?]
A sight to see if they are fighting me, they should fight a chalo
This is for the alliance in my pipe of the Cuban cigaros
Its for the future generation that just need that inspiration
Let them know we got them care, what you need and borrow
This is for my anglewood
They bay down to LA in every single hood
They love to watch me fight, just like an angle should Cos when I do good, we do good
