Pia Toscano

I got a room inside my head
I I I
I fill it up with words unsaid
Why why
Why am I caged like a lion
Biting my tongue until it bleeds
White flag, I'd be lying
'Cause there's a lot of life left in me

I won't be quiet
Even when you tell me no
I won't be silent
I'm louder than you know
And I won't fall
Even if I lose it all
No, I won't be quiet
No, no, no

Your biggest lies live in my head
I I I
Can't shut it up, can't make it end
Why why
Why am I caged like a lion
Biting my tongue until it bleeds
But I'ma keep setting fires
Yeah there's a lot of light left in me

I won't be quiet
Even when you tell me no
I won't be silent
I'm louder than you know
And I won't fall
Even if I lose it all
No, I won't be quiet
No, no, no

I've broken down, I've sacrificed
But you can't hurt me, I'm taking back my life

I won't be quiet
Even when you tell me no
I won't be silent
I'm louder than you know
And I won't fall
Even if I lose it all
But I won't be quiet
No, no, no

No, no, no
No, no
