

Gritty Picture

Picture This

I'm your nightclub toilet and you're my yipped out teen I'm your start and finish line, you're my everything between
And I'm your fast food restaurant and you're my drunken brawl
I'm your faded graffiti, will you be my council wall?

And I'm a homeless beggar, you're the pennies in my cup
I'm the paper, you're the shredder, and I love when you tear me
up

You tear me up
When you tear me up
And you tear me down
And you tear me down

And I'm your desolate building, you're the rock upon my roof
I'm a bloody crime scene, you are my convicting proof
And I am a trembling zombie and you're my moving meal
I'm a petty thief and you're the pointless junk I steal

And I'm a homeless beggar, you're the pennies in my cup
I'm the paper, you're the shredder, and I love when you tear me
up

You tear me up
When you tear me up
And you tear me down
And you tear me down
When you tear me up
When you tear me up
And you tear me down
And you tear me down

Stroke my spine while I'm sleeping, bring me to my knees with your kiss

In the darkest night come creeping, tell me everything you've missed

Hold me till my ribs are broken tighter than anyone could know
Throw me out into the open, my body can't feel the cold

You tear me up
When you tear me up
And you tear me down
And you tear me down
When you tear me up
When you tear me up
And you tear me down
And you tear me down
And you tear me down down down down down
