

I Don't Know Why

Picture This

I messed up,
I'm a cheat,
But I didn't mean to cause you all harm, oh believe me.

And I'm a fool,
A fool for you,
A fool for me,
Oh I am just a fool.

And her lips didn't taste as good as yours,
And her hips didn't move the way that your hips do.

Forgive me I messed up,
I'm broken I'm down,
I'm trying my best just to figure this out.
Forgive me I'm sorry didn't want to make you cry,
Hold my hands and wonder did I, I don't know why,
I don't know why, I don't know why.

Your revenge,
Did it taste sweet,
With my best friend,
Was he as good as me.

And you're a fool,
A fool for me,
A fool for you,
Oh you were not a fool.

Did his lips taste as good as mine,
Did his hips move the way that my hips do.

Forgive me I messed up,
I'm broken I'm down,
I'm trying my best just to figure this out,
Forgive me I'm sorry didn't want to make you cry,
Hold my hands and wonder did I, I don't know why.

I'm sick of playing games I just want to be yours again,
You don't have to apologize honey I understand,
So come back to me and we can move on,
We were young and foolish then but now we can be strong.

Forgive me I messed up,
I'm broken I'm down,
I'm trying my best just to figure this out,
Forgive me I'm sorry didn't want to make you cry,
Hold my hands and wonder did I, I don't know why,
I don't know why, I don't know why, I don't know why.
