

Magnet

Picture This

Drunk texting in a taxi
Thinking 'bout you in the backseat
Wanna wind up at your door
The driver's laughing at me 'cause
I'm telling him you make me happy, love
Never felt this way before

As I pull up outside, I see you there
I stumble into your eyes, unaware that

You're a magnet to me
A lighthouse from the sea
And I don't know if I can resist the pull and the electricity
'Cause you're a magnet to me
A lighthouse from the sea
And I don't know if I can resist the pull and the electricity
'Cause you're a magnet to me

Don't just stand there looking at me
Trying your best to come off angry
What are you smiling for?
And you've been trying your best to hate me but You're invested in this crazy love
We've done this all before

As I pull up outside, I see you there
I stumble into your eyes, unaware that

You're a magnet to me
A lighthouse from the sea
And I don't know if I can resist the pull and the electricity
'Cause you're a magnet to me
A lighthouse from the sea
And I don't know if I can resist the pull and the electricity

And I can't run
I don't really mind, I like the pull
As I wind up at your door

You're a magnet to me
A lighthouse from the sea
And I don't know if I can resist the pull and the electricity
'Cause you're a magnet to me
A lighthouse from the sea
And I don't know if I can resist the pull and the electricity

'Cause you're a magnet to me
