

Human Taste Test

Piebald

This is not suitable for human consumption
You ask how I know it's just cause I read the label
And I listened to the sound
We are living through the lost riff generation

I never heard a song like this before except yesterday
Oh yeah all right
Fight the good fight
Something's got to give and something's got to catch

Get in the last words close in on the final destination
Poke me with a q-tip
Then claim it's a knockout
All ears, all eyes, all the time

You stare at the moon and your chance is coming soon so get ready the night is caving in
You stare at the moon and your chance will come to soon so get ready the night is caving in
This is not suitable for human consumption
I read the label and I had myself a taste

Poke me with a q-tip
Soft and slow and gentle
All ears, all eyes, all the time
