Pierce the Veil

Oh

Listen do you hear my heartbeat thump over the martyrs
You pretend to close your eyes

And I'm breathing
Paces of candy and leaks of lye
Paid before I'm leaving
Without hesitating, hesitating

You took my hand and then we both started running
Both started running
There's no place to go
And now they're pulling and we both started running
Both started running too
Save yourself don't ever look back
Whoa
Nowhere to go so we both spin around in circles
Whoa

Creeping through these labyrinths
I find another dead end to the weekend
Is this real life
Paper hearts turned ash begin to fly over our heads (I'm peeking)
Screaming while the exit signs read heaven's waiting

You took my hand and then we both started running
Both started running
There's no place to go
And now they're pulling and we both started running
Both started running too
Save yourself don't ever look back
Whoa
Nowhere to go so we both spin around in circles
Whoa

And I said hey
What's on your mind
I think about my life without you
And I start to cry
And I say hey its alright
We'll make it
I love you
And I'll never leave your side
Whoa

You took my hand and then we both started running
Both started running
And now they're pulling and we both started running
Both started running too
Save yourself don't ever look back
Whoa
Nowhere to go and so we both spin around in circles, circles
Ohhh let's go!
