

It's a stolen identity, I know you remember me
On the road with this Hennessy, gotta roll on my enemies
She gon' go off my energy, let me know if you into me
Slangin' notes in the industry, slangin' dope when I'm in the streets

I stop at Neimans, get a backpack
She eat my semen like a rap snack
You play with fam and that's that
She wanna tan by her ass crack
Them morning jogs got her ass fat
Hit the Futsal Shuffle in some Vlane
She say, "You my nigga and that's that"
She just wanted it to be known
I cuss her ass out and embarrass her
And she tellin' me, "Leave me alone"
Extortin' me out up in Saks 5th, shit
Runnin' around the store doin' 'em backflips
Fake mad, you such a good actress
Lay your ass down on this mattress

It's a stolen identity, I know you remember me
On the road with this Hennessy, gotta roll on my enemies
She gon' go off my energy, let me know if you into me
Slangin' notes in the industry, slangin' dope when I'm in the streets

It's a stolen identity, I know you remember me
On the road with this Hennessy, gotta roll on my enemies
She gon' go off my energy, let me know if you into me
Slangin' notes in the industry, slangin' dope when I'm in the streets

I know she feelin' me, it's obvious
Stuff my penis in her asophagus
A ten on me, babe, go deposit it
A couple foreigners used to follow me
This swag dope, I should go bottle it
Bubble Moncler, I gotta lot of them
I walk in the courtroom with pot on me
Wrong place, wrong time, I'm poppin' it
The world mine, chico, tell me who stoppin' me?
In L.A. with kingpins, they know how I rock
They asking me why don't I shop with them
See something in Neimans I don't already got
And you know that coppin' it
Post up in the hood and I politic
Blue pill, pink pill, inside of me
(Blue pill, pink pill)

It's a stolen identity, I know you remember me
On the road with this Hennessy, gotta roll on my enemies
She gon' go off my energy, let me know if you into me
Slangin' notes in the industry, slangin' dope when I'm in the streets
