

Yo Pi'erre, you wanna come out here?

Yeah, but I don't wanna fall in love with you
I'm telling the truth when I speak to you, that's the least I can do
(But I don't wanna fall in love with you)
Exotic cars, exotic bitches too, I told them, "Leave the roof"
(But I don't wanna fall in love with you)
Big-ass crib, I got keys for two, what's a G to do?
(But I don't wanna fall in love with you)
Your friends are sexy, wanna meet 'em too, you should bring them through
(But I don't wanna fall in love with you)

Sexy bitches doing dishes wanna grant my wishes
Who that driving down my block, that Blackhawk look suspicious
He don't shop with me no more, he went to intervention
I heard he told on so and so to cut down on his sentence
Her big-ass tree, I chop it down, she scream out, "Timber"
I do the dash in that Trackhawk, I never will surrender
She said she gave me pussy once, I don't remember
I told her jog my memory and call over your sister
A lot of pistols in the car, ain't that illegal, Chavo?
Depend on what's that weed, nigga, just pass me the bottle
She like the Cuban 'round my neck, I twist her like a throttle

Yeah, but I don't wanna fall in love with you
I'm telling the truth when I speak to you, that's the least I can do
(But I don't wanna fall in love with you)

Rolex, raw sex, can you read directions?
I told her bring this down the street and she can keep the extras
See me in the magazines, say, "Ain't you someone special?"
My eyes was on her big old breasts, her eyes were on my bezel
The Benz outside, you know it's tinted and the body kitted
Her friend tried cock-block, she said, "Bitch, stay up out my business"
Rock diamond district, my jewelry ridiculous
We do a show and leave that town with new money and bitches
Codeine always on my mind and I can't get enough
I seen her kissing on her girl, ain't mean to interrupt
Wait, but that's the perfect way to get it up

Yeah, but I don't wanna fall in love with you
I'm telling the truth when I speak to you, that's the least I can do
