

Jupiter's Eye

Pig Destroyer

Doomed lovers in a free fall
Together till they crash to the ground
I long for my sweet disappearer
As this avalanche of night slides down

Black haired angel by the bonfire
With alien eyes divine, they flicker a moment
In the flames, then follow the smoke into the sky

Then follow the smoke into the sky

It's like losing a limb
This agonizing goodbye
My dreams of her are violent, all swirled in red
Like the storm in Jupiter's eye

All swirled in red
Like the storm in Jupiter's eye
