

Loud, Lawless & Lost

PIG

Here lie the ashes of the loud, the lawless and the lost
Pushing plastic protein thrills
And never count the cost
Eat your words and incantations
Spoken lacerations
I repeat and I repent at leisure
Every sin I spend in pleasure

We're just the same
In heaven's name

I need isotopes and shiny shutters
Greed will grow in every gutter
You're the spoiler, no alerts
Digging up the devils dirt

Surrender control
Save me, synthetic soul
Tomorrow's dream tonight
Close my eyes see the light
Surrender control
Save me, synthetic soul
Tomorrow's dream tonight
Close my eyes see the light

I've got doubles for my troubles
My straight jacket struggles
I go high you go low
Sooner than is soon you know
Those who know never show

Those who show never know
Those who talk never walk
Those who walk they never talk
They never talk
They never talk
Remake, remodel, relent and reinvent
Drive my digital disease to a data dream descent

Surrender control
Save me, synthetic soul
Tomorrow's dream tonight
Close my eyes see the light
Surrender control
Save me, synthetic soul
Tomorrow's dream tonight
Close my eyes see the light

See the light ...

In heaven's name

Drink up your salivations
Tortured titillations
Pain fed penetrations
I need my medications
Dimes, dollars, glass pipe scholars

One more day in perfect squalor
I spy my little eye has seen the signs
It's time to die
Time to die
Time to die
Time to die
