

The Diamond Sinners

PIG

To those who ask will not be given
Those who sin, they are forgiven
The devil's walking through the open door
He's willing and thrilling and here's his whore
The seven sins are yours to share
The psalm of sickness will bring you care
The pain, purgatory and pork
The sick will rise and they will walk
And sing...

Hallelujah, hallelujah
The drunken devil is speaking through you
Hallelujah
You can't be saved
The devil's dancing upon your grave

Hallelujah, hallelujah
The drunken devil is speaking through you
Well hallelujah
We are depraved
The revelation is you can't be saved

In chromium corridors of pain
The Diamond Sinners sing your name
We'll rock and roll your filthy soul
Take you in complete control
The vicious, venal and the vile
Dance in the dock at their own trial

Hallelujah, hallelujah
The drunken devil is speaking through you
Hallelujah
You can't be saved
The devil's dancing upon your grave

Hallelujah, hallelujah
The drunken devil is speaking through you
Well hallelujah
We are depraved
The revelation is you can't be saved

You can't be saved
Saved
