

The Revelation

PIG

We got social suicide, it's coming tonight
With a germ of genocide, you're cooking it right
I had a vision of the afterlife but I've seen it before
With the gift from the magic man before he took it all

Now rise up for the revelation and rise
Rise up for the revelation and rise
Rise up for the revelation and rise
Rise up for the revelation and rise

A new apocalypse revelation and you're doin' it right
Loving that lard with desperation and you're doin' it right
Drive in demons are desecrating and you're doin' it right
Jumpin' Jesus is ejaculating and you're doin' it right

Now rise up for the revelation and rise
Rise up for the revelation and rise

Rise up for the revelation and rise
Rise up for the revelation and rise

Once you give up, twice you give in
Burn that believer, truth is sin

Now rise up for the revelation and rise
Rise up for the revelation and rise
Rise up for the revelation and rise
Rise up for the revelation and rise
Truth is sin
Truth is sin
Rise
Rise

Dedicate my deviation, and dark delights
Decadence and desecration just seems right

Once you give up, twice you give in
Burn that believer, truth is sin
Truth is sin
Rise
Truth is sin
Truth is sin
Rise
Truth is sin
