

Only For A Reminder

Pile

You buried
Its nose in it
It took its punishment
Still doesn't know what it did
And then it was dismissed
Never spoke of it again

You don't Understand how one could
Spend so much time alone
I'd never expect you to
Because it's for someone else

You said it in your way
That there is no one here for them now
That they're in this on their own
As if they had thought it was any other way
But they can count on those closest to them

Only for a reminder...
