

Dangerous

Pillar

You've been wasting time
Buying lies
That are sold to you by everybody
Find another way
Somehow someday
To be everything you ever wanted

You betray yourself
By not following your original detections
Hatred to yourself
Dont let them hold you down

All out! Your running again!
Feels like that its one and the the same!
Dont stop now, taking the pain!
Cause i feel dangerous!

Dont look back pave the way!
Dont waste time living afraid!
Dont stop now, taking the pain!
Cause i feel dangerous!

You hold back your tears
Embrace you fears
And you let it be what motivates you
Dont hold your breathe
That burns inside you
Or you make your pain self inflicted

Direct your full attention
Did i forget to mention
Live life with no restrictions
No one can hold you down

All out! Your running again!
Feels like that its one and the the same!
Dont stop now, taking the pain!
Cause i feel dangerous!

Dont look back pave the way!
Dont waste time living afraid!
Dont stop now, taking the pain!
Cause i feel dangerous!

We've got to take our chances
Or well never know
Just how far we can go
Grab a hold of what you've been handed
Let the record show, the chance has got to flow!

All out! Your running again!
Feels like that its one and the the same!
Dont stop now, taking the pain!
Cause i feel dangerous!

Dont look back pave the way!
Dont waste time living afraid!

Dont stop now, taking the pain!
Cause i feel dangerous!
