

Horizon

Pillar

I see something in the air on the horizon
I see people searching for something
Don't you know change's gonna come?
Yeah, yeah
Don't you know he's gonna come?
Yeah, yeah
I see something in the air on the horizon

I see people searching for something
But they don't know what it is
They don't know what it is
I see people searching for something
But they don't know what it is
They don't know what it is

I see a whole lot of people searching in this group
But they don't know what it's for
But in the back of their minds
Everybody know they're searching for the lord
Don't you know that all the saved souls from the cross will return
From the heavens up above?
And my God will send His Son back in His own time
Along with everlasting love

I see something in the air on the horizon
I see all the people in the world going together
Don't you know change's gonna come?
Yeah, yeah
Don't you know he's gonna come?
Yeah, yeah
I see something in the air on the horizon

I see people searching for something
But they don't know what it is
They don't know what it is
I see people searching for something
But they don't know what it is
They don't know what it is

Well if God's this great, imagine in heaven
He's open never closed just like the 7/11
Where the music never fades and Christ is all around
We all get down when we hear the trumpet sound
And everyone loves
And no one hates
It makes a great state for the king's gate
To the lost souls
Who just don't care, man
We're praying for ya
We hope to see you there

One fine day we'll all be together
Up in heaven we can do whatever
It's gonna be great, don't be late
I hope to see you there
It's gonna be great, don't be late
I hope to see you there

I hope to see you there
(I see people searching for something)
(But they don't know what it is)
(I see people searching for something)
