

Lost Within Your Dreams

Pilot

Congratulations
What a move you made
You made it move with
Sass and persuasion

I never thought
You'd bring me down so far
You know I feel so cold
Without your presence

I'm sailing along
On a razor blade with you
And it's cutting
My poor heart in two

Believing all is lost
Is mere suggestion
And the question has
No answer

But on the other hand
A hope is destined
To find a place
To settle

In sailing along
On a razor blade with you
And it's cutting

Sooner or later
You'll find that your fate
Is decided

But don't you believe
The sun shines forever

You got to make less
Of the love in your heart
