

I'll wake you when the sky is falling, down
I was screaming inside, out
The sun is black and orange
The sky is black and orange
I will bring it only to you

So fine, blank page
Another letter from my cage
It's crawled inside (It's cold outside)
Try to keep it alive (Starts my fall)
Wrap its tail around in a spine (Chose my fall)
Memories almost behind (Go on, play)

So fine, blank page
Another letter from my cage
I'll wake you when the sky is falling, down (It's cold outside)
I was screaming inside, out (It chills my bone)
The sun is black and orange (Walk, flee home)
The sky is black and orange (To the coldest day)
I should share a token with you (Ahh Ahh) (Ahh Ahh)

Just step and goodbye (It's cold outside)
Cast it over and die (stings my face)
Wrap its coats keep her behind (Choose my fall)
Never call a girl inside (That's my fault)
Still you are (It's lose my page)
Still you are (It's in my space)
Still you are (Feel it reach)
Still you go away

So fine, blank page
Another letter from my cage
So fine, blank page
Another letter from my cage
So fine, blank page
Another letter from my cage
