Mather Knoll

Pinegrove

You said wake up
When the curtains are moving out and in
I said that might not be too far from the truth
Anyways

I'll buy you breakfast
I'll buy you medicine
You're calling me out
You're calling me in

Little thoughts running
It's not a problem
It'll come back
I'll get to hand shaking
When I wanna
I can't be alone enough

I can't be alone enough

Walking awful quiet
I could organize my head:
Compartmentalizing it
Starting out with our impediments
I can't have breakfast without you calling me!
(You're calling me out, you're calling me in)

Little thoughts running
It's not a problem
It'll come back
I'll get to hand shaking
When I wanna
I can't be alone enough

Go back to the safe side
