

Invisible

Pinhani

Invisible are the feelings
However you may see them
In the glass of your tea
On the day when I'm gone
Invisible are the feelings
But anyway you'll find them
In a place close to me
I'll come back when you're done

Invisible are the feelings
However you may see them
In the glass of your tea
On the day when I'm gone
Invisible are the feelings
But anyway you'll find them
In a place close to me
I'll come back when you're done

Invisible are the feelings
But everyone try to tell them
In the song that you hear
But the words of my mind
Invisible are the feelings
You're lucky if you share them
Can you say how you feel
Or you hug me all night

Aman, aman, aman, aman, aman, aman
Aman, aman, aman, aman, aman

Invisible are the feelings
However you may see them
In the glass of your tea
On the day when I'm gone
Invisible are the feelings
But anyway you'll find them
In a place close to me
I'll come back when you're done

Invisible are the feelings
Invisible are the feelings
