

Woke up on God's good side today
Feels like there's nothing in my way
I'm living, living finally
And I'm smiling from my ear to ear
And I want the whole damn world to hear
I'm living, living finally yeah

So if you ever
Start to wonder
That's the way that I felt
When I met ya

Look at you
And the way you bloom
I wouldn't change, not a single thing
In my arms you'll forever be
Look at you
And the way you bloom
I never thought love would hit this way
Until my eyes landed on your face
Look at you

I wouldn't change, not a single thing
Look at you

Heard someone say the world is done
But with you I feel it's just begun
I'm living, living finally
And I don't know what tomorrow brings
But I'll hold you, hold you close to me
I'm living finally, yeah

So if you ever
Start to wonder
That's the way that I felt
When I met ya

Look at you
And the way you bloom
I wouldn't change, not a single thing
In my arms you'll forever be
Look at you
And the way you bloom
I never thought love would hit this way
Until my eyes landed on your face
Look at you

I wouldn't change, not a single thing
Look at you
