

Coke & Henny, Pt. 2

Pink Sweat$

Girl, who's gonna stand by you?

Who you gonna run to?

Girl, who's gonna stand by you?

Who you gonna lean on

If I ain't standing right by you?

I really need to know now

Tell me is it right or wrong

'Cause I'm so numb inside

Your love, it used to, used to

Used to, used to fill me up

But now I'm filling this cup

Mixing coke and Henny

Got me low and dizzy

I just hope that you're sleeping alone

Got me cold, I'm sweating

Pray these ghosts don't get me

I just hope that you won't let me fall

Was hoping I could keep you

But you're gone to the wind now, love

Even in the distance

Soft breeze, I can feel your touch

Maybe I don't wanna know now

Mixing drinks, tryna block out us

'Cause I'm so numb inside

Your love, it used to, used to

Used to, used to fill me up

But now I'm filling my cup

Mixing coke and Henny

Got me low and dizzy

I just hope that you're sleeping alone

Got me cold, I'm sweating

Pray these ghosts don't get me

I just hope that you won't let me fall

Mixing coke and Henny

Got me low and dizzy

I just hope that you're sleeping alone

Got me cold, I'm sweating

Pray these ghosts don't get me

I just hope that you won't let me fall

Girl, who's gonna stand by you?
